The Pontifical Mission Societies

Opening Procession of Priest Celebrant and Children.

Invite a child to read what is being brought to the sanctuary and why.

We bring a globe (or map of the world) to remember all the children of the world. We bring our candles in the mission colours: Green for the children of Africa, yellow for the children of Asia, white for the children of Europe, blue for the children of Oceania, and red for the children of the Americas. We also bring a Missio Scotland collection box (or some coins in a jar). We do without things we like, so that we can give to others. We bring the book of the Gospels (Lectionary) and today we will be hearing about Simon Peter's family and how Jesus helped one of them in particular.

Priest Celebrant

We are all called by God to make a difference, no matter how small. This is what being a missionary is about. October is mission month. Today is a special day when children offer prayers for the needs of each other and for children living throughout the world. God loves every child and wants to make sure that they are all safe and happy. For this, God has given each child a family. Families come in all shapes and sizes. One of the things that families have in common is that all of them are loved by God. God knows each family and cares for them. The Bible is full of stories about families and it tells us how Jesus was born into one. When God chose to come into the world, this happened within a family. Jesus said that every child is part of God's family, that we are, in fact, His brothers and sisters. Today we are gathered to celebrate in a special way that we are part of one big family of God and are called to love one another and to care for each other. We are called to care especially for those who live in poverty or fear.

In our prayers today we remember:

The children of Africa (light green candle)

The children of Asia (light yellow candle)

The children of Europe (light white candle)

The children of Oceania (light blue candle)

The children of the Americas (light red candle)

Collect Prayer

God our Father, we thank you for our families. Thank you for our fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, grandparents, aunts and uncles all over the world. Make us glad to be together and help us to love you more. We make this prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

First Reading (1 Ezekiel 36:24-28)

I will take you from every nation and country and bring you back to your own land. I will sprinkle clean water on you and make you clean from all your idols and everything else that has defiled you. I will give you a new heart and a new mind. I will take away your stubborn heart of stone and give you an obedient heart. I will put my spirit in you and will see to it that you follow my laws and keep all the commands I have given you. Then you will live in the land I gave to your ancestors. You will be my people and I will be your God.

Whoever shares with others should do it generously; whoever has authority should work hard; whoever shows kindness to others should do it cheerfully. Love must be completely sincere. Hate what is evil, hold onto what is good. Love one another warmly as Christians and be eager to show respect for one another. Work hard and do not be lazy. Serve the Lord with a heart full of devotion. Let your hope keep you joyful, be patient in your troubles and pray at all times. Share your belongings with your needy fellow Christians and open your homes to strangers.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia,

“Go help everyone, everywhere to follow me,” says the Lord. “And you will be my brothers and sisters too.”
Alleluia.

Gospel Reading (Mark 1:29-31)

Jesus and His apostles spent a lot of time in the area around the Sea of Galilee. They went from town to town. In each place, Jesus taught people about God and God’s great love for the world. Sometimes, He healed people who were sick. He showed people how to love one another, as God wanted them to. One day, Jesus and His friends came to a town called Capernaum and Jesus began to teach the people there. Now Simon Peter and Andrew lived in the town of Capernaum, so Jesus and some of His other Apostles, including James and John, went to their house. But as soon as He arrived, Jesus heard that Simon Peter’s mother-in-law was sick in bed. She was sick with a very high temperature and her family were worried that she was going to die. Right away, Jesus went to her, took her by the hand and helped her up. Immediately, the woman’s temperature returned to normal and she was well again. She got up and began to serve those who were in the house.
